Geologist, Landscaper, Designer, Programmer, Investment Banker, Dad. These are the first words that TEAM MAX riders use to describe who they are and what they do. We're not professional riders, we're regular MOA members just like you. As the sport of RallyMoto enters it's second season in 2008, we'd like to thank the BMW MOA for its support and invite you to join us for another exciting season of RallyMoto...whatever your profession.
